By E. Professional
This is a ripoff. Without a course ID from a professor you cannot use it. Therefore it is not "standalone" because the publisher will not let you use it as a self study. In my case I was in a coma twice two years ago and hospitalized for a year and a half I had taken this course and a graduate program and wanted to review the online lab component which had expired. The website let me to believe that if I purchased a new lab serial number that I could renew my subscription to the site but when I went and paid the money to do so there was no way to do it I spend hours on the phone with their customer support people and they were absolutely rigid refusing to let me onto the site even after having paid.

Several versions of Pearson's MyLab Mastering products exist for each title, including customized versions for individual schools, and registrations are not transferable. In addition, you may need a CourseID, provided by your instructor, to register for and use Pearson's MyLab Mastering products. Used or rental books If you rent or purchase a used book with an access code, the access code may have been redeemed previously and you may have to purchase a new access code. Access codes Access codes that are purchased from sellers other than Pearson carry a higher risk of being either the wrong ISBN or a previously redeemed code.
